

BLACK DIASPORA BINGO

Kick off your 2023 with the must-try restaurants and foodie products that celebrate the best of the Black Diaspora. Be sure to stop by these spots and try these foods to get any two lines on this fun bingo game, and don't forget to tag @foodpreneurlab

Jamaican Honey	Afrobeat Kitchen Restaurant 1510 Queen St W. Toronto	Sugar Kane Restaurant 699 Danforth Ave. Toronto	Anything Rum Infused	The Abibiman Project Pop-Up Various locations theabibimanproject.com
Tamarind Kuchela	Anything Eggnog or Krémas Flavoured	Sweet 'N' Spice Rub	Anything with Sorrel	Caribbean Slice Restaurant 1764 Eglinton Ave W. York
Chin Chin	Miss Likklemore's Restaurant 433 King St W. Toronto	Follow @foodpreneurlab 	Haitian Soup Joumou	Da Endz Restaurant 5210 Yonge Street, Main Floor Toronto
Island Foods 1310 Don Mills Rd. North York	Kenyan Chai		Kelewele	Ethiopian Coffee
Boukan Edible Bliss Restaurant 774 Danforth Ave. Toronto	Madagascar Vanilla Sugar	Mango Pepper Jelly	SK Cookks Restaurant 133 Jefferson Ave. Toronto	Berbe-Q Sauce

Every gift opens doors and changes lives.

A foodpreneur is a person who creates the future of food through product innovation. But, true innovation only occurs when food entrepreneurship represents our cultural landscape through diversity, inclusion and food sovereignty.

When you support Foodpreneur Lab you directly support creating access and opportunities for food entrepreneurs from underserved communities.

You also help make our food landscape far more interesting and delicious!

foodpreneur
lab where food dreams grow

Donate at foodpreneurlab.com/donate